COURSE DESCRIPTION

Baseball & Softball Fundamentals (2)(A.A.) The fundamentals of offensive and defensive baseball and softball skills and strategies will be emphasized.

PERFORMANCE STANDARDS

The student, at successful completion of this course, should be able to:

1. Identify promotional opportunities for good human relations through baseball/softball.

2. Explain the importance of self discipline (composure) to the efficient execution of skills on the field and its carry over into the every day life in society.

3. Demonstrate a knowledge and appreciation for the nature of the game.

4. Project an image of the game which will be enhancing to the “national pastime” and the way it comes across to players and spectators.

5. Exhibit a knowledge of the history of the game including modern innovations.

6. Explain the general features of a field and how to construct a baseball and softball field.

7. Demonstrate a basic knowledge of the rules, score keeping and statistics.

8. Identify the basic fundamental skills and techniques of the offensive and defensive phases of the game.

Date of Last Revision:04/18/02

Date of Last Review:04/18/02

c:\data\winword\syllabi\peo1216.std