COURSE DESCRIPTION

Sports Officiating (3)(A.A.) A thorough study of the rule books of different sports and techniques of officiating of various sports is provided. Several hours of practical field work in the intramural program or approved situation are required.

PERFORMANCE STANDARDS

The student, at successful completion of this course, should be able to:

1. Identify the various roles to be played while officiating.
2. Demonstrate the ability in the mechanics of officiating the selected sports.
3. Display an understanding of the various rules of each sport and recent rule changes.
4. Exhibit insight into the qualifications of an official.
5. Perform basic fundamental officiating techniques in selected sports.
6. Explain the essential ingredients for effective officiating.
7. Describe the sequence of preliminary preparation for effective officiating.
8. Identify procedures for pregame preparation.
9. Explain the officiating guidelines for game sight preparation.
10. Exhibit an understanding of the economics involved in sports officiating.

Date of Last Revision: 04/18/02
Date of Last Review: 04/18/02