

RULE

| | | |
|------------------|---|------------------------------|
| Subject | Membership in Professional Organizations | Number: 6HX14-2.31 |
| Authority | F.S. 1001.64 | Date: 3/16/05 |
| History | 1/18/84 | |
| Source | Human Resources | |

College funds may be used to pay for institutional memberships in professional and educational organizations and associations. Other memberships in professional organizations and associations, where such participation is judged by an academic or administrative department head to be in the best interest of the College, may also be paid from College funds.

All professors are encouraged to be active in one or more professional organizations related to their fields of specialization.