Q.1. Can Attachment B be retyped? This would allow the Current Projects section to be consolidated into two pages vs. three.

Response 1. Yes, the spacing of the Attachment B may be edited to consolidate project information.

Q.2. What is the definition of Statement of Operation?

Response 2. The statement of operations is one of the three primary financial statements used to assess a company’s performance and financial position, the two others being the balance sheet and the cash flow statement. The statement of operations summarizes a company’s revenues and expenses over the entire reporting period. The statement of operations is also known as a profit and loss statement, statement of earnings, income statement, or statement of income.

Q.3. Financial statements contain confidential proprietary information and are exempt from public record under Florida Statute FS 119.071 4(c). May respondents include their Proprietary Financial Statements in a Separate Sealed envelope, not included in the RFQ response page limitation?

Response 3. Yes, respondents may include their proprietary financial statements in a separate sealed envelope. The number of pages of the proprietary financial statements in the sealed envelope will not be included in the RFQ page count limitation.

Q.4. Tab 4. Construction Experience

Response 4. Respondents may choose to utilize only the Experience Questionnaire Form, Attachment “B” to show their construction experience.
