MATERIALS
A graphing calculator is required; the TI-83 or TI-83 Plus or TI-84 Plus is strongly recommended and may be used during tests with the exception of those calculators with symbolic manipulation capabilities (e.g., TI-89, TI-92).

ADDITIONAL MATERIALS
Instructional software with access to supplemental homework problems, solutions to homework problems and video lectures is available in the bookstore. Your section may require that all students use a supplemental software such as Connect. If your instructor requires the software, it must be purchased by the end of the first week of classes. TESTS
There will be four tests and a required comprehensive final exam. NO MAKE-UP TESTS, EXAMS, or QUIZZES WILL BE GIVEN.

GRADING
Your grade in the course is determined by the percentage of points earned during the semester. A grade of 60% or higher must be earned on the final exam in order to earn a grade of A, B, or C. A syllabus addendum will be provided by your instructor if the following grading scale is not used.

ELECTRONICS POLICY

Cell phone etiquette must be observed: In-class usage is restricted to emergency situations – this includes texting. Cell phones are not to be used during tests, not even as a calculator. Inform the instructor before class of any extenuating circumstances. The use of mobile devices (cell phones, beepers, tablets and other smart devices) in the classroom is determined by the faculty member’s mobile device use guidelines for that particular class. Each faculty member determines the acceptable use of mobile devices in the classroom, from requiring the device be turned off to allowing the use of mobile devices in classroom projects. Adhere to the expectations communicated by the faculty member for that course.

MISCONDUCT

Students are required to adhere to statements regarding student misconduct outlined in official State College of Florida publications including the Catalog and the Student Handbook. The minimal consequence of failure to adhere to these statements is withdrawal from the course.

WITHDRAWAL

Withdrawing from the College - Withdrawal is defined as a complete separation from State College of Florida for a particular semester. A student can withdraw from courses online but may not withdraw from the last registered course online. Students withdrawing from all courses must complete a withdrawal form, meet with a representative from Financial Aid and Academic Advising, then submit the completed form to the Office of the Registrar by the withdrawal deadline as published in the Academic Calendar, Catalog, or on the SCF website. Failure to follow this procedure may result in a grade of "F" being assigned for each course for which the student is registered. No fee is charged for withdrawals.

Financial Aid Impact:

Federal financial aid Title IV policy requires colleges to calculate how much aid a student has earned if they withdraw or stop attending prior to the completion of a semester. If the withdrawal date is less than 60.1% of the semester, the student may have to return a portion of the aid received, as well as owe the State College of Florida (SCF) a portion of the tuition and fees. A student who remains enrolled beyond the 60% point, has earned all aid for the semester for which the aid was awarded.

If a student unofficially withdraws (stops attending) or a student’s academic transcript reflects unsuccessful completion of all courses in a term, SCF will calculate aid based on the latter date from one of the following academic related activities: 50% completion date of the term or official documented last date of attendance/activity.

Withdrawing from a course(s) - Course withdrawal is defined as withdrawal from one or more classes for a term but not complete withdrawal from the college. Failure to completely process a drop form or drop a class online may result in the student being assigned a grade of “F”.

Financial Aid Impact:
Withdrawing from one or more courses during the semester, without complete withdrawal from the college, may have an impact on both the amount of aid received for the semester and a student’s academic eligibility to continue receiving financial aid for future enrollment.

Withdrawal Grading -SCF encourages the student to discuss a withdrawal with the instructor, Financial Aid, and academic advisor before withdrawing from a course. If the student withdraws from the college, they are required to meet with Financial Aid and Academic Advising prior to submitting the completed Withdrawal Form to the Office of the Registrar. A student enrolled in an accelerated and/or short-term course may withdraw without academic penalty at any time prior to the withdrawal deadline specific to the course.

Late withdrawal - A student may appeal for a late withdrawal by completing a Late Withdrawal Appeal Form, accompanied by an explanation why the deadline was missed and include any documentation that would aid in the appeal review should be directed to the Academic Dean on the student’s primary campus. The Academic Dean has final authority for this appeal. If the appeal is granted, the academic grade would be changed to a ‘W’ without GPA consequences. Students may obtain a Late Withdrawal Appeal Form from the Advising Center.

Effective Fall 1997, the state mandated a student will be permitted a maximum of three attempts per course. An “attempt” is defined as registration in a class after the end of the registration period. All withdrawal policy statements apply to part-time as well as full-time degree-credit and developmental students.

FACULTY WITHDRAWAL

Before the course withdrawal deadline (60 percent of the term) a faculty member may withdraw a student when the student has stopped attending class and has not formally withdrawn from the course by the withdrawal deadline. A faculty member can withdraw a student for excessive absences, excessive tardiness, academic misconduct, or another similar reason, as noted in the faculty member’s respective syllabi. A grade of W will be recorded. The grade is recorded on the student’s permanent academic record. Fees are applied for all courses accordingly and are counted as attempted courses.

STATEMENT OF PLAGIARISM

Plagiarism is the use of ideas, facts, opinions, illustrative material, data, direct or indirect wording of another scholar and/or writer—professional or student—without giving proper credit. Expulsion, suspension, or any lesser penalty may be imposed for plagiarism.

DISABILITY RESOURCE CENTER

State College of Florida, in accordance with the Americans with Disabilities Act, will provide classroom and academic accommodations to students with documented disabilities. Students are responsible for registering with the Disability Resource Center (DRC) in order to receive academic accommodations. Reasonable notice must be given to the DRC office (typically 5 working days) for accommodations to be arranged. It is the responsibility of the student to provide each instructor with a copy of the official Memo of Accommodation.
